2. Role of Compliance Officer

2.1 The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors.

2.2 The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees/designated persons in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Code of Conduct.

2.3 The Compliance Office shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a restricted list which shall be used as basic for approving or rejecting application for pre- clearance of trades.

2.4 Approval of Trading Plan: - The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for the violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

3. Preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”

3.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

3.2 Need to Know: (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

(ii) All non-public information directly received by any designated persons should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

3.3 Limited access to confidential information: - Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password and the record would be maintained in pursuance of the approved Preservation Policy of the company.

3.4 Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:-

3.4.1 No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of UPSI.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstance including the following:-

(i) The transaction is an off-market inter-set transfer between promoters who were in possession of the same UPSI without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

(ii) in the case of non-individual insiders:-

(a) the individual who were in possession of such UPSI were different from the individual taking trading decision and such decision-making individual were not in possession of such UPSI when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulation are not violated and no UPSI was communicated by the individual possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(iii) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5.

3.4.2 In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of UPSI, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

4. Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

4.1 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

4.2 Trading Plan shall:

(i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial periods for which result are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial result.

(iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

(iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

(vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

4.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

4.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

4.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

5. Trading Window and Window Closure

5.1 Non Trading Periods may be determined by the Company from time to time on the occurrence or likelihood of occurrence of any of the event which are deemed to be UPSI for such period keeping in view the likelihood the availability of UPSI.

5.2 In case the Company takes up for consideration any of the items pertaining to clause 1.21 or other item that has material impact on the price of the securities of the Company, the same shall be intimated to the Designated Persons/KPM and Insider (as applicable) that such event(s) shall be considered for the ascertainment of non – trading periods.

5.3 (i) The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called ‘trading window’, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.

(ii) The trading restriction period is required to commence not later than end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results and the trading window will be kept closed accordingly.

(iii) When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons shall not trade in the Company’s securities during such period.

(iv) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) Above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

(v) In case of share based employee benefits, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of share based employee benefits shall not be allowed when trading is closed.

5.4 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

5.5 The trading window shall also be applicable to all designated persons or any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

6 Pre-clearance of trades

6.1 All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) during the calendar quarter or whenever the above limit is crossed should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-clearance procedure shall be hereunder:

(i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the designated person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.

(ii) An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such designated persons incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

(a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking.

(b) That in case the Designated Person/Employee has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.

(c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.

(d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

(iii) All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given in the prescribed (Annexure -3). The Specified Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure 4).

(iv) If the order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.

(v) All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

(vi) The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

7 Other Restrictions

7.1 The disclosures to be made by designated persons/any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
